Meeting was called to order at 7:03 PM by President April Pearson.

- Applebees Pancake Breakfast October 30th – Jon Scheerer advised each athlete will receive an envelope with 2 tickets to sell. Extra tickets can be purchased through Coach Staab. We need a check back to Applebees by 10/27 with a headcount.
- Banquet set for Thursday, December 2nd in the MPR. Karen Reed is coordinating and is requesting assistance from the Booster Parents. Cost will be $20 per person. Athlete is free.
- Randy Pearson is heading up the picture website this year. Any pictures can be e-mailed to randy@thepearsonfamily.cc
- 501c3 Update – We have finally filed our application for our non-profit status after 6 years of attempts. THANK YOU BILL SIKES!!!
- Marie Fishelberg spent quite a bit of her time decorating the Cross Country classroom. THANK YOU MARIE!!!!
- The Boosters agreed to have stickers made. The AXC stickers available to purchase for $2 each. 50% profit.
- Per Coach Staab: Both Boys and Girls Varsity are currently ranked 7th in State/DII. Claremont is ranked #1/DII.
- We have received quite a bit of press lately. All our meets are covered in the Champion and Tim Reed has his profile in the Daily Bulletin.
- Team pictures are scheduled for 10/15 before practice.

- Athletes invited to Clovis will be leaving on Friday, October 8th at 7:30 AM on the Charter Bus. They should be back in time for the Homecoming dance
- The Boosters voted to pay for auto-timing system for fast results. The cost is $1 per kid per meet.
- April had the Conflict of Interest policy to review. No objections were made and the policy was adopted.
- We need nominations for the 2011 Officers which will be voted on next meeting.

Meeting was adjourned at 7:30 PM

Next Meeting Wednesday, November 3rd at 7:00PM in H131.
