Glendora boys edge Ayala for Sierra title

By Pete Marshall, Staff Writer
Article Created: 11/05/2008 10:18:10 PM PST

WALNUT - At the top of the Sierra League boys cross country finals at Mt. San Antonio College Wednesday, it looked like an old-fashioned dual meet.

Ayala and Glendora each had five runners in the top 10, but in the end, it was Glendora that edged Ayala 26-29 to claim the league title. Chino Hills finished third. The league finals had been postponed because of rain on Tuesday.

On the girls side, Chino Hills won while St. Lucy's edged Ayala for second via tiebreaker.

The Glendora and Ayala boys had split the two regular season meets, so a league championship was riding on Wednesday's race.

"It was so close, of course it's a little disappointing," Ayala boys coach Steve Pye said.

Glendora coach Don Sumner was monitoring the race throughout and knew it was close.

"I had it as an even split at two miles," Sumner said. "Then we picked up a three-point spread. We knew we couldn't lose a spot."

It was no surprise that Ayala senior Tyler Reed won easily, by a 38-second margin. But he did it with a personal-record time of 15 minutes, 22 seconds.

"I just wanted to win," Reed said. "I wanted to start out easy."

If he started out easy, he didn't finish that way. That's not always ideal to run too fast at league finals, but Pye doesn't feel that way.

"I always prefer they run fast," he said.

Glendora's Christopher Ramsey was second in 16:00.

League girls teams ranked in CIF, had a lofty goal for league finals.

"They wanted to score 15," Chino Hills coach Jim Bergmann said. "I told them it was going to be tough. There's some very good competition."

Chino Hills had scored a perfect 15, which would have its top five runners finish one through five in the league, at the last league meet.

It wasn't to be this time, but the Huskies did score an impressive 24, as sophomore Aracely Rojas-Garcia won in 18:21.

"I was trying to keep up with Tori (Bateman, a Chino Hills teammate), and at poopout hill, I felt dead," Rojas-Garcia said.

Somehow, she found a way to win, as Glendora's Lauren Justus was second in 18:38 and Bateman was third in 18:43.

Ayala's Katie Weitz (fourth) and Marissa Horton of St. Lucy's (sixth) broke up the Chino Hills top five of Rojas-Garcia, Bateman, Jenna Carpenter (fifth), Fabiola Lugo (seventh) and Genevieve Martin (eighth).

Chino Hills is ranked fifth in Division I, Ayala is No. 10 in Division II, and St. Lucy's is No. 4 in Division III.

St. Lucy's edged Ayala by the slimmest of margins. The teams tied for second with 58 points, but the Regents' sixth runner was Elizabeth Roldan, who finished 20th. Roldan finished one spot and six seconds ahead of Ayala's sixth runner, Ariel Loera.

St. Lucy's won the tiebreaker, but it was Ayala that had the better team time of 1:38:11, as opposed to 1:37:27 for St. Lucy's.
